Traditional Words

Matt Wheeler (b. 1988)

1. We wish you Mer - ry Christ-mas, Al - so a glad New Year! We come to bring you tid - ings
2. A man-ger was His crad - le, the straw it was his bed, The ox - en were a-round Him
3. Now all good Christ-ian peo - ple, with great con-cern we sing These tid-ings of your Je - sus, 4. And now no more we'll sing you, as now the hour is late, And we must trudge and sing our to all man-kind so dear. We come to tell that Je - sus was born in Beth - lem town, with-in that low - ly shed. No ser-vants wait-ed on Him with lords and lad - ies gay, the Sav-ior, Lord and King. In pov - er - ty He liv - ed that rich - es we might share, song at a - no - ther gate. And so we'll wish you once more A mer - ry Christ-mas time,

And now He's gone to glo - ry and pit - ying - ly looks down On us poor
But now He's gone to glo - ry and un - to Him we pray For us poor
And of your wealth He bids you give and your por - tion share With us poor
And pray God bless you while you give sil - ver for our ryhme To us poor
