

Come, Thou Redeemer of the Earth

Lyrics by St. Ambrose (340-397)
Translated by J. M. Neale (1818-1866)

Music by Michael Praetorius (1571-1621)

1. Come, Thou Re - dee - mer of the earth,
2. Be - got - ten of no hu - man will,
3. O Je - su, vir - gin born, to Thee and ma - nif - est Thy vir - gin birth: but of the Spi - rit, and Thou art still e - ter - nal praise and glo - ry be,

let ev - ery age a - do - ring fall;
the Word of God, in flesh ar - rayed, whom with the Fa - ther we a - dore such birth be - fits the God of all.

the Sav - ior now to us dis - played.
and Ho - ly Spi - rit, e - ver - more.